INTERESTED IN STUDYING LAW?

According to 'Explore Careers', one of the many myths about studying law is that 'you should only study law if you want to become a lawyer.' Fortunately, this is entirely false – a degree in law opens you up to many different and diverse career opportunities!

Read an excellent article by Explore Careers about why you should consider studying a law degree, <https://bit.ly/3ImLI7U>

UNIQUE AT RMIT UNIVERSITY - MEDICAL RADIATIONS

You may have heard that the Victorian state government is investing $44 million on PET scanners for hospitals around the state, but did you know that RMIT is the only university in Victoria to train the nuclear medicine technologists who can operate the scanners?

Nuclear Medicine suits students who love science, would enjoy diagnosing illness/disease and writing reports about their findings, work with high tech equipment, and work in a medical science role that has a good balance between interacting with people, and working behind the scenes. Explore the course at RMIT via <http://bit.ly/2xEpyxc>
